Jersey Transit welcomes everyone to our 2018 Princeton Spring Sing! Pay no attention to the circles under our eyes; that's just part of the fun of planning what is sure to be a delightful weekend. We're keeping it classy this year so no mentions of a Photoshopped Chris Christie sitting in a beach chair on the GW Bridge. We bring you kick butt tunes, our signature fashion sense, and probably not much choreography.

Off Sounders

The Off Sounders, of Greenwich CT, were founded in 1956 by men who were nostalgic for the close harmony singing of their college days and who wanted to recapture the camaraderie of their college singing groups. The name is a pun based on an old Connecticut term for men who made their living off Long Island Sound by fishing, lobstering, clamming or oystering. The group's choice of a name proves that, although serious about their music, they never take themselves too seriously. This tradition continues today with a new generation of singers who balance fine musicality with a spirit of fun and friendship.

Many thanks to our directors Tony and John Birchler for their attention to detail, and to any members who pushed us to apply effort this year, breaking decades of Grunyons tradition.

Hailing from Boston, The Works features four men, four women, and a great a cappella blend. We sing everything from close harmony standards to a mash-up of Meghan Trainor's "Lips are Movin'" and "Our Lips Are Sealed" by the Go-Gos, and the Temptations to Jason Mraz. With several arrangers in our group, our tunes are original, tight, and fun. We are thrilled to be making our debut as an official Spring Sing group!

We will console ourselves with this weekend's good cheer and song.

Cahoots

Singers:

Patty Sly Chamberlain, Soprano

Nancy Wilson, Alto

George Bassett, Tenor-Baritone

David Chamberlain, Bass

Huge developments, huge: after a year's hiatus, Cahoots is back and, for the first time ever, featuring new members in the lineup! And just as amazingly, those in the former "quartet forever" have somehow managed to relocate to within reasonable driving distance of each other, making it possible for the first time since 1979 to rehearse one night a week instead of one weekend a month. PS: just in case you're wondering, we thought some honest-to-goodness fake news would be appropriate this year.

The Ellas are tremendously excited to participate in our 5th Spring Sing! We have spent the intervening year honing our skills and sharing our music with our community, all the while, each living very busy lives in our beloved Maine. Between us, we have: 14.5 children (one due in Sept.), 12 grandkids, 15 dogs, 4 cats, 3 horses, 33 chickens, 6 fish, and a parrot; jobs that command a lot and causes that sustain us. But, every week, we gather to celebrate the joy of singing a cappella and the gift of being together.

Missing You, Noteworthy...

Every year it seems we are a group shy of full a cappella awesomeness. This year, we express regret at missing out time with the lovely ladies from greater metro-Detroit.

We know you are taking extra time to make our time out to see you next year exciting and memorable.

But, for now, we miss you...our "no-fella" a cappella friends....

Thank You from Jersey Transit

As we all know, planning and hosting a Spring Sing is a ton of work to get right, Each host group works so hard to make the weekend fun and worth the year's worth of practice that goes into preparing our sets.

Spring Sing 61 would not have been possible without the excellent work and leadership of a few members who went above and beyond any expected duty.

Specifically, JT would like to thank Julianna Maria for her masterful leadership. This conference would not have come together without your work. We also thank Nicole Coelho and Andrea Schwartz for their planning prowess, and Steve Maria and Matt Lohr for their financial stewardship.
